	AirSketch	Turn your iPad into a wireless whiteboard! Project live sketches to a local computer. Just fire up Air Sketch on the iPad and open the specified URL from any HTML5 compatible browser on another computer on the local network to see your sketches in real-time as you draw. There's no additional client software to install. Use Air Sketch. Incorporate the iPad into your desktop-based workflow: Record videos of your live Air Sketch drawings, or share them live with remote colleagues via any online meeting or desktop sharing software (such as iChat or WebEx). Air Sketch supports any HTML5-compatible browser, including Safari, Firefox, Google Chrome, and even another iPad, iPhone, or iPod Touch! You can even use Air Sketch peer-to-peer with a computer via an ad-hoc network when a WiFi hotspot is unavailable (see our blog for the quick how-to). Note: Air Sketch is designed to work with a computer connected to the same local network as your iPad. Check out our blog for a short tutorial of how you can record videos of your live sketches using QuickTime X that comes with Snow Leopard. Also, be sure to follow us at twitter.com/qrayon to get the latest news, and updates.

Paper Desk
Lite -
Dropbox

Leave behind your paper notebook for your next class lecture or meeting. PaperDesk is a simple, easy-to-use notebook replacement made specifically for the iPad. The entire design goal behind PaperDesk was to mimic, as closely as possible, a simple pad of paper with no unnecessary frills. Yet it still boasts features that enable quick and responsive note taking. PaperDesk allows you to keep a "Desk" full of your notebooks. Each notebook has an unlimited number of pages in PaperDesk full version, and they remember where you left off when you last opened them. In PaperDesk LITE, you are limited to 3 pages per notebook. Not sure about PaperDesk? Try PaperDesk LITE for free!

Features:

- While playing audio, tap a word and PaperDesk will take you to the point in the recording when you typed that word!
- Import PDFs from other apps, or from iTunes
- Insert images from photo library or camera
- Type or paste in any amount of text, and PaperDesk will automatically overflow text onto proceeding pages
- Rest your wrist on screen while drawing
- Share any range of pages via email
- Upload entire notebooks to GoogleDocs, or share on Twitter
  - Keep a task list in each notebooks, with notifications
- Organize notebooks by name or date
